ROBBIE BURNS DAY

Mr. Chisholm cooked up some Haggis for Robbie Burns Day on Jan. 25th. Students and staff who participated dressed in plaid and enjoyed a game of curling as part of our family day activities.

DID YOU KNOW?

- Robbie Burns Day is a Scottish holiday named after Robert Burns, a Scottish poet. He wrote pieces like "Auld Lang Syne", most known for being sung on New Years Eve..
- The traditional Burns supper includes Haggis.
- Haggis is traditionally made of sheep heart, liver and lungs, onion, oatmeal, suet and spices encased in the sheep's stomach.
- Importing haggis to the USA was made illegal in 1971.
- You can buy haggis flavored chips and ice cream.
- Haggis hurling happens to be an actual sport. The world record is currently 217 feet set in 2011.
